

End of Quad 2 - Beginning of Semester 2 Information

Hello Celtics, please review these important reminders as we finish Quad 2 and start Semester 2 (yes... Semester!).

Period 1 classes will run from 8:15 until 10:15 on Monday, January 31.

Buses will pick up at normal time and depart the school at 10:25.

All in-person students are expected to attend, all temporary remote students are expected to log in.

Period 2 classes will run from 8:15 until 10:15 on Tuesday, February 1.

Buses will pick up at normal time and depart the school at 10:25.

All in-person students are expected to attend, all temporary remote students are expected to log in.

For those students in need of time to complete missing assignments, in either period, make sure you connect with your teacher to come up with a plan.

There are NO classes on Wednesday, February 2, so students in need of last-minute help or to hand in assignments must do so from home. Again, connect with your teacher if that is the case.

Semester 2 begins on Thursday February 3.

Many students have not experienced a 4-period semester system while for others it has been almost two years. We realize this change is exciting for some but may also cause some anxiety or raise some questions. Be assured, all St David staff will work hard to ensure the transition to semesters is supportive and positive.
